Officer and Committee Reports

Treasurer Barbara Morrow reported our account balance is at $8,500. A contribution of $100 was made to the Lace Museum, we have received the $2,500 refund check from Rolling Ridge Retreat Center, our website and online library catalog fees have been paid for the upcoming year.

Librarian Bryce Wolf reported that 2 new books have been added and are available for borrowing.

Kate Moore reported that our February program will be a presentation by Judy Jeon-Chapman on the Lace of Le Puy-en-Velay, France.

Newsletter Editor Gail MacLean reported that the deadline for submissions to the February 1 newsletter is January 29.

Other Business

Carolyn Wetzel reminded members that elections for President and Member At Large will be held in June. She read the responsibilities of each position as outlined in the bylaws. A request was made for two volunteers to form a nominating committee. Kate Moore volunteered.

Gail MacLean opened a discussion on her position as newsletter editor. Anyone wishing to assist in producing the newsletter should contact her. It was also decided to place pertinent information on producing the newsletter on Google Drive so as to be easily accessible in the event of an emergency.

Announcements

Carolyn Wetzel announced that IOLI will be holding its virtual convention, UNCON, again this year. The organizers are looking for volunteers to help with running the more technical aspects of the convention. They are hosting another online lecture on 3/24; the topic is “Repetition: It’s Aesthetic and Appeal”.

OIDFA is also hosting some upcoming lectures. It is still deciding whether to hold its 2021 convention, which was postponed from last year.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 12:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
Kate Moore, Vice President
